Graduate Positions vs Graduate Programs

Graduate Programs are paid structured professional development positions offered by large organisations and government departments to recent graduates. Participants are offered on the job training and mentoring.

Organisations recruit students throughout their final year of study for commencement in the following year. Applications open as early as March.

Graduate programs are advertised media, online job boards and the graduate recruitment sites - Prosple and GradConnection.

Graduate Positions may not offer formal graduate programs and will recruit when a position arises by small to medium sized organisations.

Job Opportunities

Online job boards, graduate recruitment sites and employer websites and social media all provide information on the range of positions and industry areas available to Bachelor of Business students and graduates.

Job vacancy listings will give you an understanding of employer expectations for various positions.

It is important you work towards gaining the skills, knowledge and experience you identify as in demand to ensure you are competitive when entering the graduate labour market.
